Golf News

We have all played other sports while we were younger growing up. If you played basketball you shot the basketball, football players throw the football, baseball players throw the baseball and swing the bat. When you shot the basketball, throwing a football or a baseball the right elbow was or should have been always leading the hand holding the ball, until you release the ball during the throwing motion. The right elbow leading the hand is the biggest reason why we can throw with power and accuracy. This is a motion we can all copy and apply to our golf swing. Many golfers think or focus on the legs and hips shifting toward the target first to initiate their swing transition from the top of the backswing to the forward swing motion, prior to the arms and upper body getting involved in the golf swing. Think about this, if the legs and hips initiate or shift forward toward the target first, before your hands move downward on the forward swing motion from the top of your backswing, one of two bad swing flaws happen to cause us to hit a bad shot. We either cast the club from the top of the swing creating an outside to inside club path or either the arms get stuck behind your body. We then try to save the flawed swing by throwing our hands to the impact position. This will cause an outside to inside swing path creating the clubface to hit the ball off the toe or the heel of the clubface with very little power. I encourage you to not focus on the lower body as much for a second and allow the right elbow to move downward in front of your ribcage, as you swing the club forward from the top of your backswing. By doing this, we will flatten out our swing plane and the clubhead should swing to the correct impact position hitting the ball on the center of the clubface, while creating a very solid and powerful strike on the golf ball producing a good shot. Creating this motion is how you can start the ball flight to the right and hit a power draw.

YOUR SWING THOUGHT SHOULD BE:

The right elbow leads my hands to a good impact position that creates a powerful golf swing and accurate golf shots. Jim Bishop

October was a very busy month on the golf course. Congrats go out to Ralph Robles on winning the 2019 Hutch Cup Match Play Championship; he defeated Billy Wade 2 & 1 in the Championship Match. Thank You to everyone who competed in the 2019 Hutch Cup Match Play Event. The 2019 Member-Guest Golf Tournament ended with Co-Champions; Keith Hatcher teamed up with his guest Doug Clark and Roger Birdsong teamed up with his guest Danny Starley to claim the title of 2019 Brickyard Member-Guest Co-Champions. The Brickyard Golf Club staff hopes that every member who invited a guest was very proud to show off the Brickyard Golf Course and the club facilities. The weather was great, the golf course playing conditions were awesome thanks to Briane and his maintenance staff. We are already looking forward to the 2020 Member-Guest Tournament. A special congrats goes out to Bruce Elliott, the guest of Curtis Hayslip, he made a Hole-In-One during Saturday's round on hole #11 hitting an 8 iron from 145 yards.

Please visit the Pro Shop to see the new merchandise, we have Under Armour, Footjoy (Men's & Women's) and Greg Norman Winter Outerwear plus Callaway Jaws wedges. Do you have any Golf Shop credit? The holiday season is right around the corner. A lot of gift certificates have been issued for various tournament winners. Please feel free to purchase Christmas gifts for your friends and family or you may want to purchase a new set of irons, a new driver, a new putter or new clothing for yourself.

Golf Course Superintendent News

Beautiful
Muhly Grass #12

Briane Faleto Class Golf Course Superintendent

With November upon us it means time for the cold weather. We have taken all the necessary measures to help all the turf areas make it through the cold winter months. Throughout November we will be continually cleaning up debris on the course as all the leaves will be dropping from the trees. We will also start doing some tree cleanup as we have many trees and limbs throughout the course that have died. Please be aware if we are working on a lift truck or other equipment. We apologize for any inconvenience this might cause. Keeping the course clean and playable will be our main focus.

We will be over-seeding all the par 3 tees again this year along with the Driving Range tee. Please be patient with us as you might encounter tee markers off the tee box temporarily. We will also rope off the area of the Driving Range tee that has been over-seeded so that no one will walk through it and track rye grass seed everywhere. Thank you for your patience.

We will also continue cleaning up the wooded areas using our skid steer and bush hog. It is remarkable how great some of the areas we have already cleaned out look.

We have also taken all the necessary measures to maintain the health of the greens and to get them through the winter months. We will slowly start raising the height of the greens mower to .140, and have added phosphorous to them to help the plants store nutrients throughout the winter. We will slow down on mowing and roll them a little more often to reduce any stress and to keep them smooth.

Happy Thanksgiving to everyone and hope to see you on the course.

November Book Club Review

In the summer of 1963, nine-year-old Starla Claudelle runs away from her strict grandmother's Mississippi home. Starla's destination is Nashville, where her mother went to become a famous singer, abandoning Starla when she was three. Walking a lonely country road, Starla accepts a ride from Eula, a black woman traveling alone with a white baby. Now, on the road trip that will change her life forever, Starla sees for the first time life as it really is—as she reaches for a dream of how it could one day be.
